About The Speaker:

Dr. Urda Martens-Jeebe, one of the most senior European economic officials to give a presentation here in Southwest Florida This rare and unique occasion marks the opportunity for regional businesses to benefit from the event. For the last five years Dr. Urda Martens-Jeebe has been the CEO and Director of Invest in Germany previously designated as the Office of the Federal Commissioner for Foreign Investment in Germany. Invest in Germany has its headquarters in Berlin with US satellite offices in New York and Chicago. It is considered the first stop agency for anyone interested in Germany as a trading partner or business location.

Dr. Martens-Jeebe is supported by an extremely influential group of commissioners who make up the executive team of Invest in Germany.

Dr. Heinrich von Pierer—CEO of Siemens

Dr. Klaus Mangold—CEO of DaimlerChrysler Services

Dr. Juergen Weber—Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Lufthansa

Dr. Martens-Jeebe's visit to Southwest Florida will complete her U.S. speaking tour that has included stops in New York and Detroit. Her presentation to us will focus on the investment climate and flow of capital between the United States and Europe, specifically the dominant economy of a now united Germany. Anyone who is affected by flow of international trade and investment will have an interest in what Dr. Martens-Jeebe's has to say. We are fortunate and happy to welcome her to Southwest Florida
